FullThought
conversation and decision

Think in Possibilities

“The challenges we face today in all aspects of our lives need to be met through significant shifts in the way we see and understand ourselves, our contexts and the way we operate within them. This change will best be driven by open, humble and collaborative leadership.”

~ Laura LaBlanc, FullThought

FullThought and Think In Possibilities are joining forces to offer a workshop for women looking for new ways to grow & live in the world; paths to heal the hurts that leadership roles provoke; & strategies to bring people together to bring forth our visions. This workshop is for women leaders, entrepreneurs and for those creating new projects and visions.

Join us to:

- 1. Explore...
the needs & capacity of “Self” in the role of “Leader”
- 2. Find the balance & skills...
to hear collective voice without losing your vision
- 3. Learn & Practice...
specific, creative & powerful strategies to move yourself, your project or organization forward
